Intel Drop #83

Editor's Note: All future Intel Drops will now also be released in video format (slightly truncated from the full written version). You can now view Intel Drop #83 on our YouTube channel.

The following was collated from intel sent to our team from Gideon. As always, all intel sent by Gideon is edited by Michael for clarity and for obfuscation purposes (see: Adversarial stylometry):

Bill: It's been a very strange couple of weeks. How are you holding up?

Gideon: "As best as I can be, Blll."

Bill: Something's happened with our comms for the first time ever, creating a bunch of interruptions. Maybe you can get into that?

Gideon: "Yes, we are seeing interruptions when a certain topic is being brought up. We are not able to speak about it without getting cut off."

Bill: I was worried they had targeted us, identified us. You don't think so?

Gideon: "No, because I had a colleague of mine try a different encrypted platform and try to impart this same information to someone else, and they had the same issues. There is a unique signature to this information that somehow the cabal's monitoring systems can detect, probably within internet infrastructure at the fiber optic level."

Bill: It's encrypted, so I don't see how they could do that, can you explain how it's possible?

Gideon: "Very difficult. The A.I. would have to analyze the encrypted packets. The data can be seen, it is encrypted gibberish, but an advanced A.I. may be able to discern a pattern they are looking for. They cannot see where we are, or who we are, they can just see a certain signature is being said somewhere on the Internet and they are intervening to stop its transmission."

Bill: I think at least ten times we tried to broach the subject and we couldn't get far. You got a little bit of data to me, do you want to reveal that?

Gideon: "I think we can. It is '2027' and 'helix'. That is all I have been able to get to you. It is a small part of it, not enough to get you what you need to know, though."

Bill: Alright, we talked about hints, we tried to see if you could describe things about this without saying it. How far did we get there?

Gideon: "It is a future event, a location, a type of technology. We got that far, and it does not tell you much. Going into more than that, we get cut off again."

Bill: I just want to emphasize to people that we've been able to not only produce eighty-plus Intel

Drops using this set up, we have private conversations that go more in-depth. We've had some comms issues over the years, but nothing like this. It really is something the cabal wants hidden.

Gideon: "That is the takeaway here, it is a blanket censorship."

Bill: You don't have all of it, though? You've got a piece of it. This was told to you in person.

Gideon: "Yes, in person, somewhat briefly, written down in front of me, not spoken. I did not get everything, no. We had to take some steps just to ensure we were not being eavesdropped or monitored. Very difficult to fully protect from that, but I took some steps."

Bill: We're hearing so much of these scientists who died or disappeared, do you think this is related? Did they know about this thing?

Gideon: "I cannot say. My knowledge of their individual cases is limited. If this is something on Fox News, I would put some doubt into it. It is too high level in the public consciousness right now, so there is some other agenda. It could be a threat to other scientists that it is being talked about like this."

Bill: I don't want us to just talk about how you know something but we can't say it, it's frustrating. What can supporters of ours take away from this? Anything?

Gideon: "There is a future event coming and it involves cabal technology. It is more secret than the nano tech, than plans we have revealed, far more. Since I know mostly what it is, I can state for certain that preparation and being part of our team is extremely important. I say that because Sovereign status cabalists will not be impacted by it."

Bill: How many people will be impacted by it?

Gideon: "At least 2 Billion."

Bill: I might get back this, but for now, I'll move on. The state of the world is very strange right now. You told me, somewhat off the record, certain scientists know the fabric of reality is behaving oddly. What can you say about that?

Gideon: "Well, since we just referenced disappearing scientists, I will say I do not think what I am about to say has to do with that or them, but I suppose it might.

What I am hearing from sources is that certain physicists and theorists working on the nature of reality, working on a theory of everything, they are spooked. They are unsettled. Some have had to face the truth that their math and their theories are entirely bogus, their premises are bogus. There is a quiet shock-wave going through those research fields."

bogus. There is a quiet shock-wave going through those research fields."

Bill: We talked about how water has memory, you can speak something into it, it will retain it. Very odd, but proven. Hard to say what it really means. Is it something like that, for example, creeping into the modern thinking?

Gideon: "That is a good example. Maybe not that, specifically, but like that. Or, for example, that plants can hear, can sing, emit what seem to be emotions or energy."

Bill: How much of it is pointing to reality being a simulation?

Gideon: "It is to some degree, but it is not really a simulation, to me. It is just more controlled than we want to believe. The cabal controls the realm more than we want to know."

Bill: You talked about souls, though, you said soul energy within all of this is very powerful, please expand on that.

Gideon: "I think souls are the gold of the universe, and I think there are evil entities who lack that essence or connection to God. They covet soul energy, they want to use it, abuse it, steal it. It echoes Biblical teaching, but also diverges, too."

Bill: Robert Monroe talked about "loosh" energy that they want to harvest, and the Moksha remote viewing project painted a real grim picture of the whole thing. How much truth is there?

Gideon: "A great deal, but they did not capture the workings of the cabal mechanisms, only vaguely. They did not see the realm beyond, the astral Earth, that is totally controlled by the cabal. This is where the Near-Death Experiences are coming from, a realm entirely in control of the cabal. I do not think they saw that or talked about that."

Bill: No, more like there's some big entity surrounding Earth, a big machine, keeping souls trapped. Similar, I guess.

Gideon: "No, it is not. The astral is an Earth-like realm, controlled, dystopian, slightly different laws of physics - no need for food or water to survive - the soul manifests as a human body, and so on. Money is actually more important there than here. I am not seeing this talked about."

Bill: I'm actually not, either, not really. You tasked me to research these NDEs, I'm not seeing that, but there's some clues of it.

Gideon: "You have to look at what they do not want revealed, and the astral Earth they do not want revealed. They are letting some other truths out."

Bill: You've pretty consistently talked about this over the years, how Obsidian actually extends into the afterlife.

Gideon: "Very true, very much so."

Bill: You've said the NDEs are controlled experiences, please explain.

Gideon: "We are monitored, they know when we will die, they know who is going to come back to life, and they take certain souls for a certain ride and let them come back to tell their stories.

They know who will end up on YouTube telling the story. It is very controlled. Most have a nice story, a few have Hell-like stories, it is all controlled. They know who will hear and see those stories and how that will impact their outlook.

When we die, you and me, or those reading or watching this, do not assume we will be greeted the same way. I think some will get an approximation of it, but there are layers of deception here. The greetings by loved ones, by guides, the so-called life review, all of it is unholy deception."

Bill: They sure make souls feel guilty about their lives. They never really explain anything, just that we come here to learn, make mistakes, do it all over again, a cycle. Reincarnation. At this point, you think reincarnation is proven?

Gideon: "I would not say proven, but there is compelling evidence. I do think past life regressions are suspect. Very suspect. Those memories can and could be planted."

Bill: What about alien abductions?

Gideon: "Those relating to Mantis aliens are important. Simon Parkes said things about how the aliens have to very carefully stop time or phase into our reality that was compelling, he knew things no one else knew."

Bill: You believe the aliens are either cabal-aligned minions or controlled by the cabal? And demonic?

Gideon: "Correct, and they originate in the dimension directly above this one. They can phase into this one. They are either demons, or just controlled entities."

Bill: I don't want to jump off topic here, but I don't want to forget this, you told me the cabal is preparing to simulate people they have killed off. You said this was going on, but this is a bigger extension of that?

Gideon: "It is. It is a full simulation of those they eliminate. How? Through A.I., the only part missing is the actual body itself. They can mimic the rest. The person's entire life is mimicked. They are online, they live in a home, that home uses electricity that a real person would use, but no one is there, there is a car registered in their name. Everything about them still exists, but they are gone.

The cabal is experimenting with this extensively now. This goes beyond the imitation of a person online that I spoke about before, this is full simulation of a real person that they eliminate, down to every detail. Again, the only thing missing will be the body itself, but they are working on that, too."

Bill: Through cloning?

Gideon: "They can do that, but a robot is more reliable. They are showing a preference to human-like robots. They are more life-like than the public has seen. So, that is the final phase. Eliminate Restricted and Quarantined people entirely, and replace them."

Bill: The nano tech, though, can already switch people over. Why not just use the nano tech?

Gideon: "The cabal might want the soul, Bill, they might want it out of the body, that is why. The nano tech just impacts a person, it does impact the soul in some way, but it is still the same person.

What I am talking about is just a total phase-out of the person. The cabal has uses for that. I think they want to do it to the people who will most likely resist the nano tech, to some degree. The people it might not work on like they want it to. It also has other purposes, to replace someone entirely."

Bill: I think this is one of the most shocking things you've said, but it tracks with what we know. It is totally possible.

Gideon: "If they can do it, they have done it, Bill. The extent of human trafficking, child sacrifices, abuse of humans for experimentation, gang-stalking and that kind of terrorism is far more prevalent than you know."

Bill: We talked about Narcissism, too, how extensive that is now. What is it? Why is it so common? YouTube is filled with videos about it, about Narcissists and all their victims.

Gideon: "An enormous issue, relating to demonic influence. They want to harm and devastate people who have love within them. They want to destroy them.

How do they do that? They pair them with a Narcissist. It is devilish. It is demonic. It is cruel. It is everywhere. They use romantic relationships the most, and next, they use parents who are Narcissists to hurt children."

Bill: It's a huge issue. I can't believe how much material there is, support groups, books, videos, it's exploded all over the world. You have the Narcissists doing the damage, then the fallout, these victims who are hurting and seeking answers. Some of the psychologists have done excellent work, one is Darren Magee, he's very good, an Irish clinician. His breakdowns of how Narcissists operate is superb, if anyone wants to learn more they can on his channel.

Gideon: "A lot of the psychologists are actually doing good work here, it is impressive. It is an enormous issue. The Narcissist is deceptive, very clever, they are chameleon-like, and very hard to identify. So, many people get lured into their web and wrapped up with them."

Bill: Is it a cabal operation?

Gideon: "It is."

Bill: Does the Narcissist know what they're doing?

Gideon: "Generally, no. They will have moments of shame and awareness of their behavior, but they are brief. They live and breathe a state of false narrative, paranoia, anger and envy. Even though they are abusive and harming others, they believe it is justified.

They believe those they harm, even if they are innocent, somehow deserve the abuse, or the Narcissist tells themselves they are not even abusing to begin with; the Narcissist denies their abuse in their own mind, makes excuses for it.

The Narcissist is, ultimately, a victim, too, but the conduit with which the demonic evil is dispensed. Then there are Narcissists more deeply entrenched in their own psychosis who begin to enjoy their abuse, that is sadism. They are truly dark and evil."

Bill: What's the purpose of the cabal program, other than just to spread pain and evil?

Gideon: "To break the will of the victims, to make them not want to love anyone again or show love again.

The cycle of being with a Narcissist is not just abuse, it starts with love, with happiness, with usually a romantic episode that can last weeks, months and on rare occasions, years. That magic hooks the victim, and then the devaluation and abuse starts. It is psychologically twisted, and traps victims into a cycle of endless ups and downs.

Children are abused differently, a Narcissist parent will favor one child, treat it well, and purposefully mistreat another. Love is actually intertwined within the Narcissists' playbook, they use love to harm and hurt. They are masters of mimicking love, but they have very little love inside of them."

Bill: The world's drastically changing, plunging birthrates, men and women just seem to hate each other, romantic relationships are dying off, no one is dating. Is this related to that?

Gideon: "It is part of a cabal plan enacted ages ago, with a singular, purposeful outcome, the era of the bionic human that is begin in the 2030s. Using Narcissists to break the world apart is one method they are using to achieve it."

Bill: Remarkable. We said we would split our future Intel Drops, make the main one private only for our team, but you're deciding against that for this one?

Gideon: "I am, this will be a full Intel Drop, but for the future, I am very close to ending these. I want them private for our team."

Bill: I think you've said some things today the public needs to hear. I hope people join our YouTube, I hope we can reach more people. Do you think we still have time?

Gideon: "A window of time. About one year. Rapid changes are coming and the cabal is planning major events. These momentary lulls in activity are designed to make us complacent, by the way."

Bill: We have dedicated people who share our information, but many of them come back and say, "People get angry, they reject it." Why? I see YouTube videos about really far out things, like the Devil's Tower being an old, ancient tree stump, but people reject the idea of a social credit system and nano tech. It's like this blind-spot, they'll believe anything but this.

Gideon: "I think the nano tech is already in operation, Bill, on some level. The world is more blind than ever, whilst believing it has never been more awake."

Bill: There's still an activation coming?

Gideon: "Yes."

Bill: Ok, Disclosure Day is coming out, it uses sine wave sounds just like the nano tech antidote, a stunning coincidence and confirmation. Is it safe to watch this movie?

Gideon: "No, I would not see it. I would advise no one watch it. Steven Spielberg has said it is somehow closer to the truth than people think, he claims. From what I know, it is dripping with deception. Look at the symbolism, of the raven, of the eye. Beware."

Bill: Ok, I know you have to go here, these comms interruptions wore us both out, but I feel like this conversation could go on, can we revisit it later this week?

Gideon: "Yes, let us plan on reconvening soon."

Bill: Great, God bless you and we'll speak soon.

Gideon: "Same to you, Bill."
